Greetings from Area Delegate

As we approach the holiday season I take this opportunity to wish you all well. We will celebrate in our own way and some of us may not celebrate at all.

We are so lucky to have a fellowship where we can feel comfortable and free to practice our spirituality and not feel we're offending anyone. We can share ideas and thoughts with our friends, sponsors and those who understand us best.

I wish you all well and thank you for the opportunity to have served you as your delegate during this year fast coming to a close. I think of the Serenity Prayer often and try to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can and above all, wisdom to know the difference.

Yours in love and service, Dale K

In control

There are things you can control and things you cannot control. If you focus too heavily on those things you cannot control, it can lead to an overwhelming amount of frustration and anxiety.

Choose instead to focus your thoughts and efforts on those things upon which you can have a positive influence. There are plenty of those things, and by giving your energy to them you can quickly and significantly improve the quality of your life.

Stop worrying so much about what others are doing wrong. Instead, put your time and effort into discovering what you can do right, what you can do well, and in using your unique abilities to create excellence.

Whenever you feel yourself getting anxious or frustrated by something that's beyond your control, stop and take a fresh look around. There's something you can do, right then and there, that will make a positive difference in the world.

The more you make use of the positive power that you have, the stronger that power will grow. There is always something you can do, and it always beats complaining or worrying about those things you cannot do.

Do what you can, when you can, where you are, with what you have. You'll find that it can make an enormous difference.

Greetings From Your Service Office

Are any of your AA friends on your shopping list this holiday season? Then the Service Office can be your shopping destination! We carry many items suitable for gift-giving.

Of particular interest are two items just recently added to our inventory. Emotional Sobriety: The Next Frontier was released in October by the Grapevine. Its preface partially reads, "The stories in this book show that when we have the willingness to find solutions rather than stay stuck in problems, we can let go of fear, selfishness, and resentments, put aside selfish demands, practice outgoing love, and become more connected to our Higher Power and our friends, family, and fellows." Let Emotional Sobriety inspire your friends to reach further in their recovery.

AA World Services has just released the Twelve Steps & Twelve Traditions on CD for $20 – the same price as the set of audiotapes. We also stock the Big Book on CD as well as a wide variety of Grapevine CDs, and we still have Grapevine audiotapes as well.

If you cannot come to the Service Office during business hours (we're open Monday thru Friday 10-4, and Saturday 10-2), you're not out of luck! Download our order form off the website at www.nhaa.net or call us with your order at 622-6967. We accept checks, money orders or credit cards for payment, and there is no additional shipping and handling.

Please note that we expect to release the next statewide meeting list by February. If you know of meeting changes in your region, please make sure we know too! Our meeting list is only as accurate as the information we are given, and a newcomer needs accurate meeting listings.

Thank you to Geri F. of Candia and Don H. of Manchester for their help in the office.

In grateful service,
Karen, Mary Anne and Sandy
