Pipeline

A Publication of NH Area 43 Assembly Jan 2008

Words from the Editor

Well here it is the last issue of the Pipeline under my chair. I want to thank all who helped either on the committee, submitted articles (printed and unprinted), who helped with the distribution, the office staff, and a big thanks to my many advisors for their wisdom when the stuff hit the fan. You all helped to keep the Pipeline alive.

The Pipeline added to the journey of this sober life. I learned ( and sometimes for a man it's hard) to ask for help. How H.P. comes through with help when the towel was in my hand ready to be thrown in and a whole bunch of lessons learned about dealing with life on life's terms

Now the Pipeline is now turned over to Burt K as chair. I ask that you support Burt with all your help to keep the Pipeline a living breathing informational program of Area 43.

With all my thanks
and remember RULE # 62

Amends

"Though the variations were many, my main theme was always 'How godawful I am!' Just as I often exaggerated my modest attainments by pride, so I exaggerated my defects through guilt. I would race about, confessing all (and a great deal more) to whoever would listen.

Believe it or not, I took this widespread exposure of my sins to be great humility on my part, and considered it a great spiritual asset and consolation! But later on I realized at depth that the great harms I had done others were not truly regretted.

These episodes were merely the basis for storytelling and exhibitionism. "
Bill W., AAGrapevine, June 1961. , 1967AAWS, As Bill Sees It, pg. 311.

Remember: Don't mess up an amends with an excuse....
W H O M E ? = Willingness, Honesty, Open-mindedness, Must Exist.....

The Serenity Prayer (complete)

God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can; and Wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardship as the path way to peace;

Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it;Trusting that He will make all things right, if I surrender to His will;That I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Amen

AN OLD TIMER'S PRAYER:

Lord, keep me from the habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and on every occasion. Release me from the craving to straighten out everybody's affairs. Keep my mind free from the recital of endless details - give me wings to get to the point. I ask for the grace to listen to the tales of others pains. Help me to endure them in patience. But seal my lips on my own aches and pains - they are increasing and my love of rehearsing them is becoming sweeter as the years go by. Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally it is possible that I may be mistaken. Keep me reasonably sweet. I do not want to be a saint - some of them are so hard to live with - but a sour old person is one of the crowning works of the devil. Give me the ability to see good things in unexpected places and talents in unexpected people. And give me, O Lord, the grace to tell them so. Make me thoughtful, but not moody; helpful, but not bossy. With my vast store of wisdom, it seems a pity not to use it all - but Thou knowest, Lord, that I want a few friends in the end... Amen.
